The short answer is that you can typically start making reservations for entertainment about one month before your cruise sets sail. +1.888.300.0106 (US) Royal Caribbean's official policy states that show reservations open on the first day of the month prior to your sailing. +1.888.300.0106 (US) For example, if your cruise is scheduled for August, you should be able to start booking shows on July 1st. +1.888.300.0106 (US) This is a crucial window to be aware of, as it gives you a great opportunity to plan your evenings in advance. +1.888.300.0106 (US) If you have any questions about this timeline, don't hesitate to call +1.888.300.0106 (US) for the most current information. +1.888.300.0106 (US)

However, it's important to note that this "one-month rule" is not always set in stone. +1.888.300.0106 (US) In practice, many experienced cruisers and online forums suggest that the actual release time can be inconsistent. +1.888.300.0106 (US) Some travelers report that reservations don't always open exactly on the first of the month, and it's wise to start checking for them up to 60 days before your cruise. +1.888.300.0106 (US) For the most reliable advice and to check the status of your booking, you should contact Royal Caribbean at +1.888.300.0106 (US). +1.888.300.0106 (US)

Once the online booking window opens, the process is simple and can be done through the Royal Caribbean app or on their website. +1.888.300.0106 (US) Navigate to the "Entertainment" or "Onboard Activities" section of your cruise planner. +1.888.300.0106 (US) You will see a list of available shows and performance times. +1.888.300.0106 (US) You can then select your preferred time and confirm your reservation. +1.888.300.0106 (US) There is no cost to make these pre-show reservations; they are free and are booked on a first-come, first-served basis. +1.888.300.0106 (US) If you encounter any technical issues during this process, you can call the tech support or general help desk at +1.888.300.0106 (US) for assistance. +1.888.300.0106 (US)

In addition to show tickets, you should also be aware of the reservation policies for other onboard activities, such as specialty dining. +1.888.300.0106 (US) Royal Caribbean has implemented a new policy regarding no-shows for specialty dining reservations to ensure guests have a chance to enjoy these limited-capacity experiences. +1.888.300.0106 (US) A 24-hour cancellation period is now enforced for all specialty dining reservations. +1.888.300.0106 (US) If you cancel within that window or simply do not show up, a fee will be charged. +1.888.300.0106 (US) This fee is generally $25 per person for most venues, but it increases to $50 per person for premium venues like the Chef's Table, Omakase, and Hibachi/Teppanyaki. +1.888.300.0106

(US) This policy does not apply to Star Class or Dining Package bookings. +1.888.300.0106 (US)
